Cottonwood Creek Church Certified by National Financial Accountability Organization

ALLEN, TX – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the certification of Cottonwood Creek Church of Allen, TX.

ECFA certification is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Cottonwood Creek Church joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is certified by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to certify a church committed to glorify God by sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ with all people and equipping believers in authentic faith, one home at a time,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1882, Cottonwood Creek Church’s (www.cottonwoodcreek.org) mission is to discover where God is working locally, nationally, and internationally and equip the people of God to respond to His leading.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides certification to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance. For more information about ECFA, including information about certification and a listing of ECFA-certified members, visit www.ECFA.org or call 1-800-323-9473.
